

Our Volunteers:

Our volunteers are mature, responsible people dedicated to helping others.

We will respect your privacy and maintain confidentiality.

We have had training concerning the realities faced by women in difficult situations. We strive to be as sensitive and helpful as possible.

We respect the rights and beliefs of others, and honor the inherent worth and dignity of every person

The volunteers staffing this program are all committed to the philosophy that it is good for everyone when women returning to the community following incarceration, or other times of transition, are supported in healthy ways through that time. It is good for:

- the women themselves
- their families
- the community at large.

With blessings and good wishes, wherever you are on your journey.
