

UPCOMING ONE TIME EVENTS

Thursdays, April 6—June 15 @ 7-9pm, Nashua

Cakes for the Queens of Heaven (Register)

More than Goddess 101; A feminist theology program that explores women's religious history and examines pre-Judeo Christian cultures that may have worshiped the female as divine. The primary question raised is: How would your life have been different if, when growing up, the divine had been imaged as female? Participants are encouraged to share their own experiences and beliefs, creating trust and strong bonds of friendship. Tess George and Loretta Hubley-Taylor, facilitators. Participants are asked to make a serious commitment to all 11 sessions.

PLEASE NOTE: The program is for those who identify as female. Minimum group size is 6; maximum is 13. Registrations will be "wait listed" based on date of registration. There will be a $10 materials fee that will be collected during the first evening.

Saturday, May 6, Milford (Register)

Sunday, May 7 @ 1pm - UU Nashua

Black Lives Matter Presentation

The public is warmly invited to hear Boston's Black Lives Matter speaker Mr. Martin Henson. He will present an overview of current events and activities, discuss the need for a Black Lives Matter movement in the context of white supremacy, and take questions from the audience. Refreshments will follow. This event is part of the day's important nationwide UU teach-in about white supremacy.

Saturday, May 20 @ 9:00am-10:30am, Milford

"Continuation of the "White Privilege " Discussion

Program invites people to engage in safe, meaningful, substantive, and bold conversations on race.
